

WOZQ 91.9
SPRING 2001

Thanks for listening to
WOZQ 91.9 fm Northampton!
Within this guide you will find our spring 2001
programming schedule.

Please keep in touch by calling our request line: 585 4977
and by checking our web
page:

www.smith.edu/WOZQ

for more information, including the weekly Top 30.

...STAY TUNED TO WOZQ!

MONDAY

8-10am: General programming

10-12pm: General programming

12-2pm: Transmissions: bringing you beats from electronic to hip hop with a dash of indie rock for spice.

2-4pm: North by Northwest II: Music from the Northwest (labels, artists, etc).

4-6pm: General Programming: Unpretentious, dorky indie rock, mixed with experimental, rockabilly and 80s schlock.

6-8pm: Specialty programming

8-10pm: Urban programming

10-12am: Urban programming

12-2am: Urban programming

TUESDAY

8-10am: A sensitive and heartfelt selection of the finest in young dyke bands.

10-12pm: General programming

12-2pm: A mix of music, from new to old, folk to techno.

2-4pm: The In Sounds from Way Out: Music from the Midwest you may never have heard before, plus enough this and that to make lesser CD collections consider pacts with the devil.

4-6pm: General programming

6-8pm: Friends Don't Let Friends Drive Fords: Rockabilly, psychobilly, punkabilly, greasy rock and roll and all sorts of hick music. Yee frickin' haw.

8-10pm: Under the Covers: with Alyssa. Indie Rock, Post Punk, Garage classics, Rockabilly, '77 Punk and more!

10-12am: The Rumors Are True: with Alexis. You can dance if you want to, you can leave your friends behind... or just nod along with the indie rock, twee pop, and more.

12-2am: Left of the Dial: Rock.

WEDNESDAY

8-10am: The Elephant Six Hour: A show inspired by the musical collective loosely based in Athens, Georgia containing music from and related to the collective.

10-12pm: Faint, Feeble and On the Sly: Quiet and louder music to sit, walk and sing to.

12-2pm: General Programming:

alt/country, no depression/good music

2-4pm: WOZO TOP 30: Re-live the past weeks greatest hits with a different DJ each week!

4-6pm: General programming

6-8pm: Den of Decadence: step into the darkness and debauchery with DJ Aria Black.

Spinning the best goth, industrial and darkwaveówith news and events from the New England goth scene.

8-10pm: Urban programming

10-12am: Urban programming

12-2am: Urban programming

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
6-8am
8-10am	GENERAL PROGRAMMING
10-12pm
12-2pm
2-4pm
4-6pm
6-8pm	SPECIALTY PROGRAMMING
8-10pm	URBAN	GENERAL	URBAN	GENERAL	URBAN
10-12am
12-2am

THURSDAY

6-8am: Needles Are Made of Diamonds: music that's better than silence.

8-10am: Hang the DJ: Morning alta/BritPop/J-Pop show featuring new music as well as 80s, 90s, and older classics. Featured artists include Tindersticks, the Smiths, Morrissey, T-Rex, the Brilliant Green, PJ Harvey, and Pizzicato Five.

10-12pm: The Background: A delectable selection of choice music exclusively picked by DJ Hapa for your listening enjoyment. This single serving show ranges from chopper rock to mad flava beats to fresh indies. All in all: anything and everything...selectively.

12-2pm: General programming

2-4pm: General programming

4-6pm: General programming

6-8pm: Specialty programming

8-10pm: I Do Believe You're Blushing: I heard your favorite colors are brown and baby blue...tune in for two hours of your favorite indie pop classics, lots of new music, and the occasional emo tune.

10-12am: !Viva La Revolution! a show for the kids who want to sing along, a show for the kids who think there's something wrong. The first half is old school and new school punk rock, folk and anything else challenging the system, the 2nd half is mostly underground hip hop.

12-2am: General programming

FRIDAY

8-10am: Carrousel: Where the beats keep turning. We play a crazy mix of music that's always kickin' and always flows.

10-12pm: Suburban Produce: Music we like; music you'll love.

12-2pm: General programming

2-4pm: Millenium Mary and Me: Because who can rock harder than the mother of Jesus? Punk, emo, ska and other cool tunes.

4-6pm: Naked Tea: with Erin. Naked tea demands response from the listener.

otherwise i am taking my own pulse.

6-8pm: A touch of Jazz: with Emily. Features the great, classical sounds of this wonderful movement in American music. Artists from as early as the 1930s and into the current day will appear, including "jazz legends" as well as contemporaries.

8-10pm: What-A!! A myriad of jammin' shapes and colors...kickin' it with ISA.

10-12am: Urban programming

12-2am: Urban programming

SATURDAY

8-10am: Rainy Day Music: Rainy Day Music is created in a unique way that captures the fruit and flavor of ripe grapes. This leaves wine with great depth of color and a high natural sweetness. Rainy Day Music has long been the classic way to end a meal and celebrate an evening.

10-12pm: Quite a Variety

12-2pm: Randomosity: a weekly offering to the deity of musical goodness

4-6pm: Hello Katie

6-8pm: Got Rice? We play sounds of the Asian diaspora, which means you get to hear some of the most cutting edge sounds in the underground, overground, and mainstream of ALL musical genres from around the world. What IS Asian/American music? Tune in for yourself, and expect the unexpected. asian-sounds@yahoo.com

8-10pm: Discombobulation: NYC Beats

10-12am: Urban programming

12-2am: The Floor: with Link. Listen to the floor, WOZQs bran' spakin' new Urban show with Link. Features an eclectic mix of Hip Hop, Dance, Trance, Jungle, Tekno and fusion of all of the above, just for the Saturday night party animal in you.

SUNDAY

6-8am: Specialty programming

8-10am: Specialty programming

10-12pm: Intrepid Folk: an eclectic mix of folk and roots music from here in the valley and around the world.

12-2pm: Specialty programming

2-4pm: Specialty programming

4-6pm: Old Compton's Cafe

6-8pm: Specialty programming

8-10pm: Specialty programming

10-12am: Specialty programming

12-2am: Joyful Noise: A late-night blend of all the ways to celebrate the Lord. Ranging from Hip-hop to gospel to alternative to worship, there's something for everyone. Also includes concert announcements and news updates.

requests: 585 4977

office: 585 4956

www.smith.edu/WOZQ

WOZQ@SMITH.EDU